CIRCUS TRAIN IS IN A BAD SMASH UP

Stricken with epilepsy as he was backing road engine No. 1066 to the Sells-Floto circus train on track No. 8 in the yards of the O. S. L. Salt Lake, at 12:15 o'clock this morning, Wilbur S. Noyes, 43, engineer, permitted the locomotive to crash full force into the train. Jammed between the locomotive and tender he was seriously injured that he died at 3 a. m. George L. Bowers, a circus watchman, was knocked from a stock car, receiving a fracture of the right leg just below the knee, while Frank Walker, a driver for the circus, falling similarly, received bruises about the head.

When the engine struck the first car, loaded with camels, the animals sat down in unison, but scrambled up again uninjured. A car of ponies in the rear of the camel car was chaotic with its scrambling live freight for several minutes after the collision. None of the animals was seriously hurt.

Horses Frightened.
A stampede of the band of heavy draft horses used in loading was narrowly averted because of the noise of the collision, the snorting of the ponies and the cries of the frightened camels in the cars. Only the prompt action of the teamsters at the bits of the horses prevented them from bolting.

The two cars that suffered most were found fit for travel with slight repairs, and loading was resumed shortly after the injured men had been removed from the scene of the accident. H. J. Jensen, the fireman on the engine with Noyes, escaped without injury and was able to leave with the circus train for Logan.

H. H. Tammen, owner of the Sells-Floto shows, was in his private car in the yards at the time of the accident. The car was with the passenger train of the circus and not near the accident. Mr. Tammen joined the circus yesterday afternoon, coming from San Francisco. He arrived in California from Hongkong, China, on May 19.

Word of the accident was taken to Mrs. Noyes, wife of the injured man, at the Oxford apartments early this morning.

MRS. INLOW IS TO BE GIVEN FREEDOM

The charge of murder in the first degree against Mrs. Caleb A. Inlow, jointly charged with her husband of killing Chauffeur Thomas E. White last October, is to be dismissed upon motion of District Attorney E. O. Leatherwood, according to a rumor last night. This action, it was learned from a reliable source, will be taken immediately upon the completion of Inlow's trial, no matter what the verdict of the jury in that case may be.

Believed Innocent.
It is said that attorneys for the state are convinced that Mrs. Inlow's connection with the murder of White, if she had any connection at all, was an innocent one. Inlow, according to the theory of the state, is supposed to have convinced her husband to kill White and was necessary to get the consent of White not to appear for the state in the trial of the burglary charge which had been made against him. It is believed by attorneys interested in the case that Mrs. Inlow's share in the crime, if she participated at all, or if Inlow be guilty, was only that of an innocent wife seeking to secure a meeting between her husband and the man who it is thought was the principal witness against him in the ore specimen theft which he was charged.

Refuses to Testify
The rumor that Mrs. Inlow was to be dismissed arose yesterday following her refusal to testify for the defense in the trial of her husband. According to officials of the sheriff's office Mrs. Inlow yesterday morning told her sister that she did not wish to testify, but feared that she would have to. She is said to have requested the sister to call upon Soren X. Christensen and S. R. Thurman, her attorneys, and ask them to come to the county jail for a consultation. Mr. Christensen went to the jail yesterday morning and following the consultation it was announced that on the advice of her attorneys Mrs. Inlow would not take the stand.

The announcement in the court room yesterday that Mrs. Inlow would not take the stand acted as a blow in the face to her husband, who has constantly maintained a cool and collected air. Yesterday, however, when his attorneys informed him of his wife's decision he slumped in his chair, and showed a decided indifference to what was going on about him.

At the county jail, however, the decision of Mrs. Inlow created but little surprise. It is said that on many occasions Inlow has been buying delicacies for himself with funds which he obtained from some unknown source and that only rarely has he paid any attention to his wife. Mrs. Inlow on the other hand, is said to have won the sympathy of the jailers, who have done everything possible to make her comfortable.

CHARLES WRIGHT DIES IN GLENDALE

Charles Wright of Glendale died yesterday afternoon, according to

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and the last few years have produced a great many cases of this disease. For a great many years doctors have tried to cure it with various remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Catarrh cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and cures everything of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

word received in Ogden by his children. He celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary last October. Charles Wright was born in London, England, and came to Utah with "Johnson's Army." He settled in Cache valley when twenty-two years of age, immediately entering the public school service as a teacher. For a number of years he was an instructor in schools of Weber county, but more recently he has been in the southern part of the state. A letter to his son, C. W. Wright, stated that he was in the best of health last week and the news of his death was a shock to relatives.

JESSE KNIGHT'S DAUGHTER TO WED

San Francisco, Cal., May 22.—Last autumn Addie Iona Knight, the young and beautiful daughter of Jesse Knight of Provo, Utah, left her home and journeyed to Stanford university. Cupid has snared the studious feet of the mountain maid, and today when Miss Knight turned again toward home she was the tentative fiancée of Knight Starr Jordan, son of Stanford's chancellor, Dr. David Starr Jordan. At his home tonight Dr. Jordan said:

"It is true that Miss Knight and my son have been good friends, but it is rather premature to say that they are engaged. Neither Mrs. Jordan nor I know just what sort of understanding there is between Miss Knight and my son, so I would not be justified in saying that they are engaged to wed. We would much prefer to have the news wait upon a formal announcement of an engagement."

"This, however, I will say for myself and for Mrs. Jordan: Miss Knight is a most charming young woman and one of the best students ever enrolled at Stanford."

Miss Knight returned today to her home in Utah, after having completed her freshman year. She had clung to her studies during two semesters, despite the soft allurements with which the god of love beset her path. But as to whether she will be brave enough to attempt her sophomore year, even the sage Dr. Jordan would not venture to say.

Knight Starr Jordan is 24 years old and was graduated from Stanford in 1911. He is now associated with the South San Joaquin Land company in the sale of country lands. He attained considerable notoriety when arrested for speeding his automobile down the peninsula.

OPPOSE CHANGING NAME OF CHURCH

Reading, Penn., May 22.—The annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of Bethlehem went on record yesterday as opposed to a change of name of the denomination from Protestant Episcopal to American Catholic. Bishop Talbot, who presided, endorsed a minimum salary for ministers. "The board of missions," he said, "has decided that it is not right to ask any man to serve under its appointment at a less stipend than $1,000 if he be unmarried or $1,000 and a house if he be married. These amounts are to be regarded as the minimum."

MANICA KILLS ROOM MATES

Blackfoot, Ida., May 22.—Peter Bradovitch, an insane Austrian confined in the southern Idaho insane asylum here, killed his five room mates by beating them over the head with a table as they lay asleep yesterday morning. The dead:

GEORGE RACE, Pocatello.

GEORGE PEDE, Boise.

HYRUM PETERSON, Idaho Falls.

ELIAS BAGLEY, Moreland.

GEORGE SHEPHERD, Pocatello.

There was no evidence of a struggle between the maniac and his victims except on the body of Peterson. Two bruises on his arm showed that he had tried to ward off the blows which Bradovitch was raining on his head. So quietly did Bradovitch accomplish the killing that guards sleeping across the hall were not awakened. The heads of all five men were crushed.

Bradovitch was committed to the insane asylum two years ago from the state penitentiary, where he was serving a life sentence for murder. An investigation of the killing was held this afternoon and the asylum officials were exonerated from blame. According to the testimony of the institution was overcrowded, making it necessary to keep several patients in one room. Testimony also was given tending to show that in the two years which Bradovitch had been confined in the asylum he never had shown any signs of violence.

ORDERS INVESTIGATION.

Boise, Ida., May 22.—Governor Haines said last evening that a complete investigation of the Blackfoot tragedy would be made immediately. He issued a call for the members of the state board of the institution to meet at Boise today.

SPRY ORDERS A QUARANTINE

Sweeping quarantine against the importation into Utah of all horses, cattle and swine except such as have been subjected to strict inspection and examination for contagious and infectious diseases, was put into effect yesterday by an official proclamation issued from the office of Governor William Spry. The proclamation applies to all the states in the union, the Dominion of Canada and all foreign countries. It is to be effective from the date of issue, May 21, to December 31, 1914.

In declaring the quarantine Governor Spry explained that it has been reported to him from reliable authorities that the livestock industries of the state are endangered by the importation of infected animals. The proclamation sets out the nature of the diseases to be guarded against and enumerates the tests and inspections that must be made for horses, mules, asses, cattle and swine before they can be admitted within the state.

CLAIRVOYANT FAKE EXPOSE

Chicago, May 22.—Indictments against five clairvoyants, charged with obtaining, chiefly from women, sums ranging from small amounts up to $1,000 for "revealing the future," were returned by the county grand jury yesterday.

"Professor" Mason, who, according to charges, was one of a gang of fortune tellers that harvested fortunes in Chicago under alleged collusion with certain police officials, was the only new name mentioned in the indictments. All of the others had been previously indicted.

James Ryan, alias "Professor" Charles T. Crane, who was arrested in Wyoming, is the only one who has been apprehended.

Upon returning the bills the jurors considered charges that the police personally, through "shake down" men, collected from the "crime trust" of which the clairvoyants are alleged to have been a part.

BRIEF TO BE FILED BY WOOLGROWERS

Washington, May 22.—Representatives of the National Wool Growers association in Washington have prepared a brief in support of a duty on wool which probably will be presented to the senate finance committee tomorrow or next day. For a general and more complete statement of the wool question from the standpoint of the grower the Wool Growers association invites the attention of the finance committee to the brief it filed with the ways and means committee of the House last January.

enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law." Judge F. C. Loofbourou yesterday handed down a decision in the case of Salt Lake against Seymour B. Young, Jr., sustaining the demurrer of the defense against two counts and dismissing the case.

This decision is a precedent for the city and means that it cannot prevent pasturing of horses or other animals along streams furnishing water to the city unless it is shown that this is contaminating the stream so the general health of the public is jeopardized.

At London, England, grave diggers in Hammersmith cemetery struck recently for an increase of from $6.75 to $7.50 a week, and got it.
